Synopsis: This Resolution is being presented by City Council for Council's review and approval. This Resolution provides examples of the City of Wilmington's history of racially motivated violence against Blacks and seeks to contextualize the City's own racially motivated acts of violence against the police, as well as against its own Black citizens. This Resolution solidifies and pledges that City Council will keep this evolving history of pain and healing at front-of-mind as the Legislative Body seeks solutions to preserve life and acknowledges input from Citizens and groups who agree that Black life in the City of Wilmington should be acknowledged as an extension of the City's history, as well as a motivation for a better community for everyone who lives, works and plays here, going forward.
